Ms. Gilman is a member of the Kansas Bar Association (Family Law Section) and the Wichita Bar Association (Family Law and Fee Disputes Committees). The focus of her practice is divorce, child custody, child support, spousal maintenance, and all other related family law matters.

She has been an active member of the Wichita Bar Association Family Law Committee since 1994, and has served on various subcommittees, helping to revise local rules, develop forms for use in Sedgwick County, as well as in other areas. She served on the Sedgwick County Law Library Board from 1989 to 1994, the Wichita Bar Association's Ethics Committee, and is a member of the Wichita Women Attorneys Association. The Kansas Bar Association has recognized Ms. Gilman with its Pro Bono Award for legal services provided to an indigent client.
