Krystle Dalke is member of Hinkle Law Firm LLC in Wichita, Kansas. As a Certified Information Privacy Manager (CIPM) and Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) focusing on United States privacy laws, Krystle helps clients tackle legal compliance issues and navigate the United States' sectoral approach to privacy while also balancing each client's business and operational needs. No two businesses are alike and Krystle appreciates the uniqueness each client brings to the equation. Krystle also performs data risk assessments and breach assessments and counsels clients faced with cybersecurity events that often require notice to impacted individuals.

In addition to her privacy and data security practice, Krystle often assists clients in trademark matters and licensing issues and advises clients on how to comply with endorsement and disclosure requirements when marketing their brands on the internet and through social media. Krystle's ultimate goal for her clients is achieving a successful business model while also reaching and maintaining legal compliance.

Before joining Hinkle Law Firm, Krystle clerked for both the Honorable Judge Monti Belot and the Honorable J. Thomas Marten with the United States District Court, District of Kansas at various points in her legal career. Krystle also practiced appellate law at The Law Office of Michael P. Whalen.

In her free time, Krystle can be found chauffeuring her son around to his various activities and cheering him on at his sporting events. Krystle also serves as legal counsel to Quivira Council, Boy Scouts of America, in a pro bono capacity.
