Rebecca Mann is a family law attorney in Wichita, Kansas. Her practice primarily focuses on divorce, child support and custody, parenting time, and guardian ad litem.

After graduating from law school in 2006, Rebecca worked as a clerk for the New Jersey Superior Court for the Honorable Michael A. Guadagno. It was here that Rebecca gained extensive experience in various domestic cases. In addition to her work in the superior courts, Rebecca also worked in a private practice focusing primarily on family law cases. Recognizing that her clients come to her during a trying time in their life, Rebecca strongly advocates for their concerns in an efficient and sensitive manner.

Rebecca, a Wichita native, earned her Bachelor of Science in Business Management from Baker University. She graduated with her J.D. from Tulane University School of Law in 2006. Rebecca lives in Wichita with her a husband, a fellow attorney, their two kids, and three dogs. When Rebecca is not working, she enjoys spending time with her family, traveling, and playing tennis.
